

Cascadia Produce

Local Produce Specialists

A small business food distributor in Auburn, WA

Cascadia partners with farmers in Washington to aggregate fresh, local produce for food security organizations, inclusion in CSA boxes, and sourcing for wholesale and food service customers.

Cascadia has access to all types of produce grown in Washington

Vegetables Including:

potatoes, onions, carrots, leeks, beets, cabbage, spinach, lettuces, kales, brassicas, garlic, asparagus, peppers, squash

Fruit Including: apples, plums, cherries, pears, peaches, apricots, berries of all types, melons and more.

Beans and Ancient Grains

Herbs and Microgreens

Local Pork, Beef, and Seafood

Pictured: Francis of Faith Beyondfarms in Enumclaw, WA

Purchases from small farms can have huge local impact

Cascadia's WA Farm Network Includes:

- Woman-owned farms
- Black-owned farms
- Native-owned farms
- Asian-owned farms
- Hydroponic farms
- Regenerative farms
- GAP certified farms
- Certified organic farms

Contact: info@cascadia.com for more info or jeremy@cascadiaveg.com to order 253-785-6055